2901 Lost Rights by David Howard - Order number of books. "Buy a book written by fellow member David Howard--and support the co-op! LOST RIGHTS was named 'one of this year's page turners' by the New York Times and was featured on C-SPAN and Martha Steward Living radio. Dave (who is also on the co-op's board of directors) Description: Near the close of the Civil War, as General Sherman blazed his path to the sea, an unknown infantryman rifled through the North Carolina state house.The soldier was hunting for simple Confederate mementos maps, flags, official correspondence but he wound up discovering something far more valuable. He headed home to Ohio with one of the touchstones of our republic: one of the fourteen original copies of the Bill of Rights. Lost Rights follows that document s singular passage over the course of 138 years, beginning with the Indiana businessman who purchased the looted parchment for five dollars, then wending its way through the exclusive and shadowy world of high-end antiques a world populated by obsessive archivists, oddball collectors, forgers, and thieves and ending dramatically with the FBI sting that brought the parchment back into the hands of the government. For fans of The Billionaire s Vinegar and The Lost Painting, Lost Rights is a tour de force of antiquarian sleuthing (Hampton Sides). will personally sign and inscribe the book however you wish."	$12.93/book	All Natural
